

Dyke Village Newsletter

April/May 2023

You've gotta ask yourself one question... do I feel lucky? Well do you ?

Do you know who put Baby in the corner?

Do you still blame it on the boogie?

Do you like to go your own way?

Are you livin' on a prayer?

Do you remember the 21st night of September?

If the answer to any of these questions is yes, come along to the 70s and 80s night at the hall and relight your fire!

I went to a 70s disco last night. The place was freezing.

Must have been Three Degrees... Four Tops.

Events at Dyke Village Hall

Henry at the Hall - Saturday 18th February

This was a fabulous night of music and dancing. Henry was on great form and all who attended very much enjoyed the evening. We raised over £500 for Village Hall funds. Our grateful thanks to Henry and Naz. We hope that we can do it again soon.

Games Night - Saturday 4th March

Back by popular demand, 30 of us enjoyed another Beetle drive and card game evening - if you have never tried this before please do give it a whirl next time as it really is a great social event. Thanks to Philip and Brenda for helping us put this on. More games evenings are planned.

Warm Welcome Hubs - Tuesdays 10am -12pm

The Village Hall will continue to be open on a Tuesday morning from 10am-12pm throughout April. Please come and join us for a warm welcome as well as tea, coffee and a selection of cakes and biscuits. You can also join in with a variety of games including dominoes and cards.
